

The Department of History, Concordia University, presents

Thomas Lutz and Heike Deckert-Peaceman

Foundation Topography of Terror, Berlin
(<http://www.topographie.de>)

The Evolution of German Memorial Sites: From Cemeteries to Public Education

The former School of Industrial Arts and Crafts at Prinz-Albrecht-Strasse 8, around 1932; later the administrative headquarters of the Secret State Police and the notorious Gestapo "house prison".

Thursday, February 14, 6 p.m. to 7 p.m.
LB-608

This presentation will take place in the context of History 403, "Methodology and History," but all interested faculty and students are invited to join in. Dr. Lutz will talk for about half an hour and then he and Dr. Deckert-Peaceman will join in a discussion with the students and faculty present.